

Casey Driscoll

with Jonathan Grisham

CASEY DRISCOLL: fiddle

JONATHAN GRISHAM: guitar

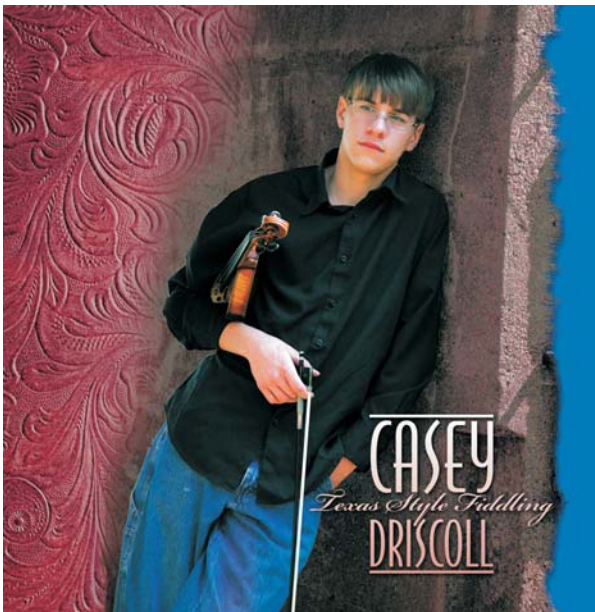

NATE LEATH: 2nd fiddle on Track 12

Frank Maloy, a most amazing artist of the fiddle says:

“It is with great pleasure I was able to hear this brilliant player play this tune that I wrote. It was a great pleasure because he is the ideal choice to play this tune as he plays it great. In fact the entire album is great.”

Casey Driscoll started playing fiddle at age six, performing and studying with JayDean Ludiker in Washington State. He honed his skills as a Texas “contest style” fiddler who early on showed an unusual ability to produce clear, mature tone up and down the neck.

On this CD, Driscoll is joined by guitarist Jonathan Grisham, eponymous leader of the Jon Grisham Band, winner of the 2007 John Lennon Educational Bus ‘Battle of the Bands’.

1. After You've Gone 2:00
2. Old Joe Clark 2:20
3. Bonaparte's Retreat 3:01
4. It Don't Mean a Thing
(If it Ain't Got That Swing) 2:34
5. Tennessee Waltz 2:01
6. Sally Goodin 1:48
7. The Entertainer 2:58
8. Lake Pontchartrain 2:01
9. Fishing Jig 2:17
10. Sally Johnson 2:06
11. T and T Rag 1:32
12. At Break of Dawn Waltz 3:58
13. Tom and Jerry 1:57
14. Pete's Waltz 2:40

Patuxent CD-166
© 2007, Patuxent Music
www.pxrec.com
info@pxrec.com

