

THE DOERFELS

What I'm Looking For

Patuxent Music

BY CHARLIE HALL

The Doerfels are a young and very talented family bluegrass band. Their new project showcases not only the band's great vocals and musical abilities but also establishes them as songwriters, too. Five of the songs were written by bandmembers. The Guitar Song, written by TJ and Kim Doerfel, is an up-tempo song about life on the road as a musician. The Chocolate Song, written by Kim Doerfel and Angelica Grimm, is a sweet little tune that tells how lost love and broken hearts can be cured by eating chocolate. Also included to balance out this great project are a couple of Flatt and Scruggs tunes, Someday We'll Meet Again Sweetheart and The Salty Dog Blues; Patsy Cline's Walking After Midnight and The Delmore Brother's Blues You Never Lose. The Doerfels have hit a home run with this CD! BMP

www.bluegrassmusicprofiles.com