Hi Tom,

Just wanted to let you know how much I loved Brennen's new project Had A Big Time Today. This high octane project had me tapping my feet the entire time it was playing. From the first note of "I've Had a Big Time Today " until the last note of "I'm A Stranger " this project had me mesmerized. I've played it numerous times since receiving it & I found something new and exciting each time I heard it! This project will be my traveling buddy for many months to come. This project is a real crowd pleAser.

Regards,
