

LEON MORRIS—*THINKING TODAY OF MY HOME—Patuxent Music CD-224. Canadian

native Leon Morris has been performing in the Washington D.C., area since the late 1950s and has been a great supporter of the local music scene, performing with the likes of Bill Emerson and Buzz Busby. This new project combines some of his favorite tunes with some of his own. Assisting Morris in the studio are Kevin Church (banjo), Scott Walker (banjo), Wayne Lanham (fiddle), and Tom Reeve (bass). Morris plays both the guitar and mandolin. His own compositions include "Heaven Is Waiting For You," "God's Highway," "Now I'm Free," and a tribute to his late friend Charlie Waller called simply "Charlie." Other selections include Busby's "Going Home" and "Me And The Jukebox," the Louvins' "Love And Wealth," and Emerson's "Welcome To New York." Leon Morris fans, friends, and others will certainly welcome this new project. (Patuxent Music, P.O. Box 572, Rockville, MD 20848, www.pxrec.com.)
